

CAREERS IN THE Sciences

SCIENCE MENTOR WEEKEND NOVEMBER 12-13, 2010

Friday, November 12

Alumni Perspectives from Division III Teaching Students from Emerging Populations

Speakers: Branden Mirach '07 (Biology major), Amy Steele '08 (Astronomy and Math major),

Ashley Rae Martinez '09 (Psychology and Biology major),

Theresa Wei Ying Ong '09 (Biology and Chinese major)

Panel 1: "Being a Science Student at Williams"

Time/Place: 1:15-2:15 , Griffin 3

Alumni Perspectives from Division III Teaching Students from Emerging Populations

Speakers: Alana Frost '06 (Biology major), Yamnia Cortes '06 (Biology major)

Gina Calderon '04 (Chemistry and Political Science major),

Duane Lee '01 (Astrophysics major)

Panel 2: "Careers in the Sciences: Interdisciplinary Possibilities"

Time/Place: 2:30-3:30, Griffin 3

Alumni Perspectives from Division III

Facilitated small group discussions

Time/Place: 3:30- 4:00, Griffin 3

Saturday, November 13

Lunch

Opening remarks: Ed Epping, Faculty Director of the MCC

" What it Means to Have Social Capital"

Time/Place: 12:15-1:30 PM Science Atrium

Discussion with Students and Alumni

"Navigating Williams" Facilitated by: Paula Moore Tabor '76, Alumni Relations office

Time/Place: 1:45 PM – 3:00 PM, Biology, Room 211

"Opportunities in the Sciences" Alumni share their experiences after Williams in terms of career, graduate school and other experiences available to science graduates.

Facilitated by: Jane Cary, Office of Career Counseling

Time/Place: 3:05 PM- 4:30 PM, Biology, Room 211

Closing Remarks

Time/Place: 4:35 PM-4:45 PM Biology, Room 211

Co-sponsored by the Office for Strategic Planning and Institutional Diversity, Alumni Relations, The Multicultural Center
and The Office of Career Counseling